

1. Act 1- Scene 6

1.1 VERY WIDE SHOT

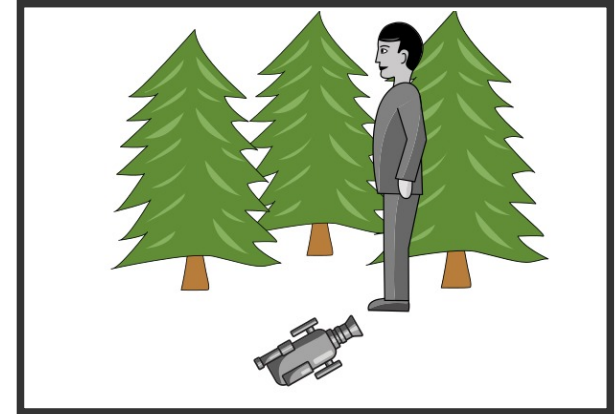

Wind whistles through the barren trees, as the early morning light ricochets into spectrums of colour.

1.2 WIDE

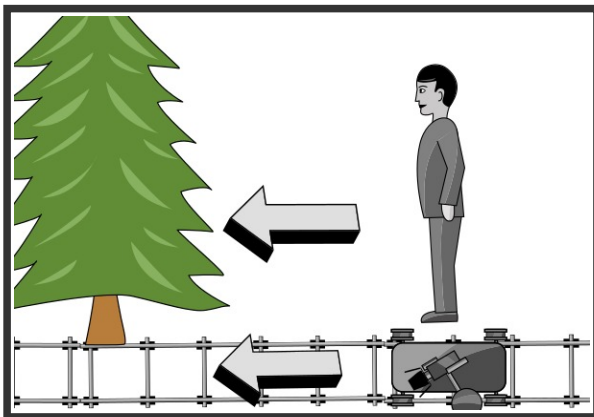

Amorette takes a shaky breath, sniffs and wipes away tear stains with her back to us, almost to hide the breakdown of her tough façade.

1.3 CLOSE UP

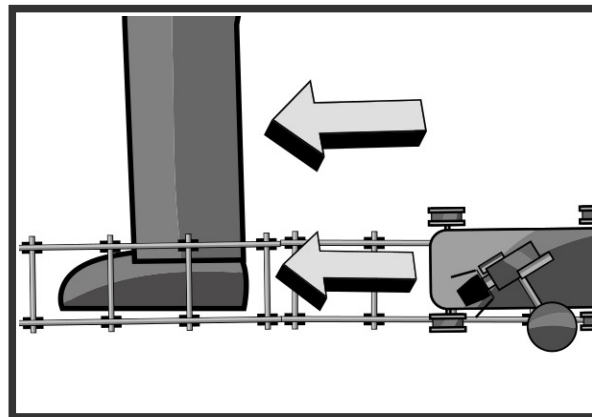

Alby skulks through the trees towards Amorette; his face is not yet revealed to an audience to create an ominous atmosphere

1.4 WIDE

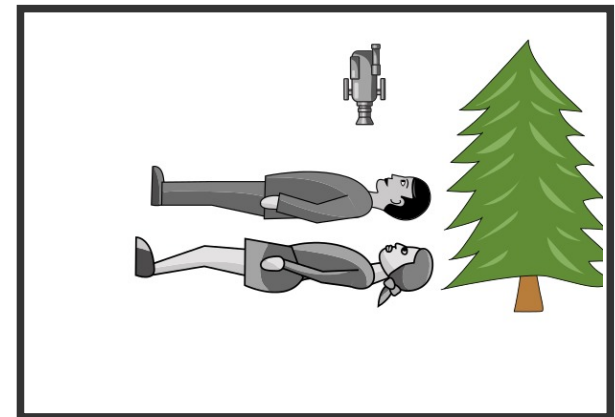

Alby skulks through the trees towards Amorette, face barely visible as we are introduced to his verging-on-arrogant manner of walking.

1.5 CLOSE UP

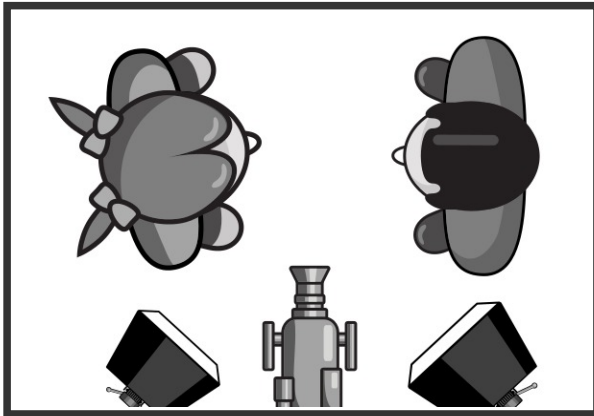

Alby skulks through the trees towards Amorette before turning left into the area she lies in. The enigma code of the identity of Alby is continued.

1.6 MEDIUM

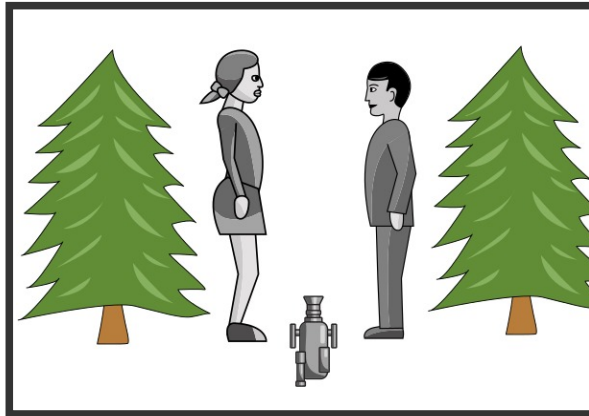

Alby lies placidly next to Amorette; his identity finally revealed to an audience. Amorette turns, confused as to how anyone found her in the woods.

1.7 MEDIUM CLOSE UP

Amorette jolts upwards and begins arguing with Alby about how he found her: continuation of the suspicion.

1.8 MEDIUM

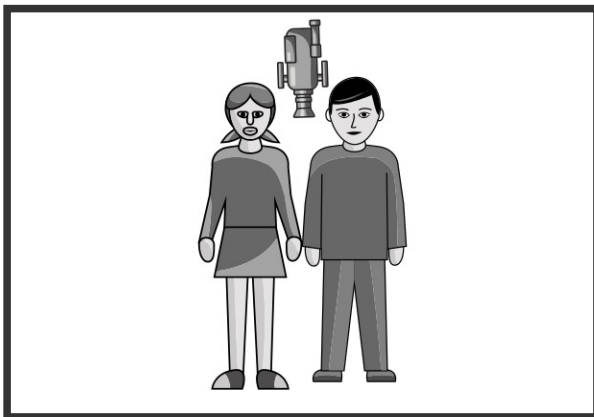

Amorette icily glares at Alby as they scramble to their feet, Amorette becoming increasingly angry as her frustration swells to a climax.

1.9 OTS

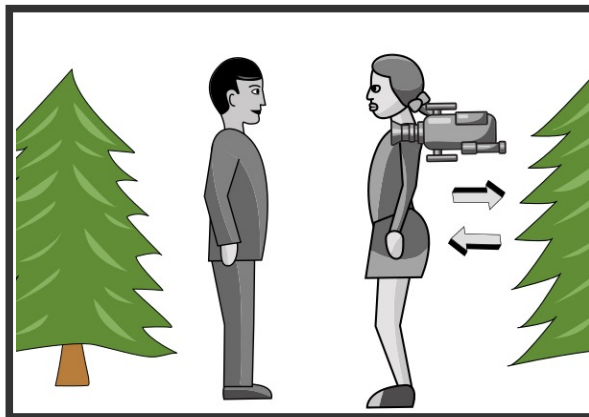

Amorette completely loses her temper, yelling in a furious monologue at a retreating Alby, before triumphantly sniffing and tuning away from him

1.10 CLOSE UP

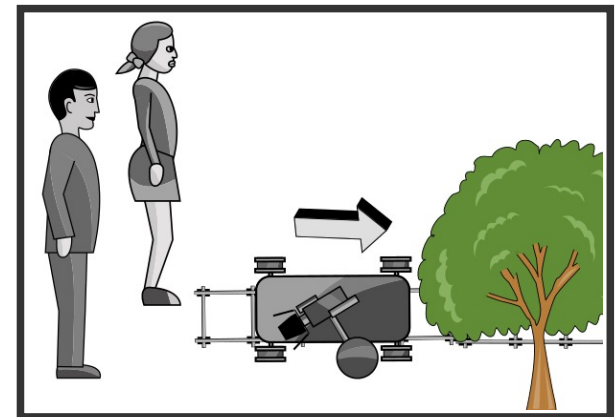

Alby sheepishly sidles towards Amorette and clutches her hands between his as a loving plea for forgiveness.

1.11 OTS

Alby apologises to Amorette.

1.12 VERY WIDE SHOT

Alby tells Amorette that they will never return to their home of Terestria as we close Act 1 of the film on a symbol of fearful unity from these two characters.
